WM. D. HAYWOOD NOW ON STAND IN OWN BEHALF

TELLS HIS LIFE STORY TO THE JURY IN THE FAMOUS
BOISE TRIAL.

DENIES ORCHARD'S STORY

And Also Any Participation on His Part in the Murder of Governor
Steunenberg.

Boise, Ida., July 12.—Following the completion of the cross-examination of Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, was called to the stand in his own defense. Haywood appeared pale and nervous, and when he began to respond to Counsel Darrow's questions his voice was low and somewhat uncertain, but within 10 minutes he had regained his composure. As he told of his boyhood, that began with toil at the age of nine, and gave the history of his family, his invalid wife, who sat just to the left of the witness stand, began sobbing softly. Her mother-in-law and her nurse soon comforted her, however, and during the remainder of the session she and the rest of Haywood's kinsfolk remained quiet but deeply concerned auditors.

Haywood's testimony was chiefly characterized by positive denials of the allegations made against him by the prosecution. He denied that he met Orchard until some time after the Vincindator explosion; denied that he sent Orchard back to Cripple Creek to blow up the Independence station; denied participation in the Lyte Gregory murder, and denied suggesting or discussing the Steunenberg murder. He swore that he never gave Orchard any money at any time or place for any purpose. He declared that he never made a threat against Steunenberg, whom he said he regarded only as he did any politician who was being swayed by capitalistic influence. He told of a number of occasions when he met Orchard in Denver in the ordinary course of his relations with the federation and George A. Pettibone, and said he saw Orchard for the last time in August, 1905, when Orchard told him he was going to Alaska, and Haywood said he chided him for deserting his wife at Cripple Creek.

The cross-examination of Charles H. Moyer was completed, the state in dealing with his testimony directing its strongest attack against the circumstances under which the federation at the suggestion of Jack Simpkins came to the relief of Orchard when he was arrested for killing Steunenberg. Senator Borah, who conducted the examination, emphasized the connection of Jack Simpkins and the federation and the fact that the federation, without inquiry as to the guilt or innocence of Orchard, gave $1,500 from its treasury to provide for his defense. He also developed the fact that the federation is providing for the defense of Steve Adams, who is charged with killing two claim-jumpers at the instigation of Jack Simpkins. Moyer denied knowing anything about the $100 that Haywood sent to Jack Simpkins a few days before Steunenberg was assassinated, and which is traced to Orchard by an unsigned note he got at Caldwell jail and a coincidence of dates.

BOTH CHARGE PERJURY.

Boise, July 12.—William D. Haywood continued testimony in his own behalf today. Both sides are threatening perjury proceedings, and both maintain that much matter altogether new will be brought out in rebuttal and surrebuttal testimony. The rebuttal is expected to begin Monday. Both Moyer and Haywood have most positively denied that they know Harry Orchard other than as a member of the Western Federation of Miners.

DESPERADO SENDS THE POSSE A NOTE FOR THEM TO COME AND GET HIM

Guthrie, Okla., July 12.—A dispatch from Porum, I. T., says that Jack Baldridge, who slew U. S. Marshal Sam Roberts during a joint raid there July 5, has been surrounded near that town by a posse of deputy marshals and citizens and a battle is expected.

True to his dare devil nature, Baldridge who is a notorious character in the Indian Territory, has dared the officers to come and get him.

He forced a small boy to carry his note to his pursuers yesterday. It read:

"I am not hiding, I am not running away, I am not going to run away. At present I am playing solitaire and smoking cigarettes to steady my nerves. You can come and get me. It is a very short distance, but I will not be responsible for the outcome. Roberts was the eighth man I killed, but may have to finish more on this job."

Last night the posse attempted to drive Baldridge from the underbrush, where the boy said he was hiding, but were unsuccessful.

He is known to be heavily armed and has the reputation of being a dead shot. The officers may wait for reinforcements before making another sortie to capture the fugitive.

WOMAN TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE BY THE USE OF A SHOTGUN

Mrs. George Lingafelter of Near Chatbam, Made an Effort at Self Destruction Friday Morning--Her Step
Daughter Showed Remarkable Presence of Mind.

Chatbam, O., July 12.—During the brief absence of her daughter from the house, Mrs. George Lingafelter, wife of a well known farmer and timber man, attempted suicide here Friday morning about 11 o'clock.

Her lack of familiarity with the weapon, a shot gun, which she used to accomplish the deed, probably saved her life. The charge of shot, which she aimed at her heart, did not find its mark, but lodged in the unfortunate woman's left arm. The arm was badly lacerated by the shot and Newark physicians who were called, had not reached the scene of the tragedy up to noon.

Owing to the intense excitement in the neighborhood it was difficult to learn the details of the affair. As near as could be learned, Mrs. Lingafelter made the attempt at self destruction while alone in the house.

Her step daughter, Miss Belle Lingafelter, aged 18 years, had gone to the mail box which was quite a distance from the house. She did not leave the woman alone more than 20 minutes but when she returned she found that her stepmother had fired the shot and was suffering considerably from the loss of blood.

She hurriedly secured temporary bandages to stop the flow of blood and then ran for help. She hurried to the telephone in the general store at Chatbam and sent a call to Drs. Simson and Herrmann of Newark, and as it was not known at the time how serious the injuries were, Dr. Wiyach, the deputy coroner, was also called.

Mrs. Lingafelter is about 39 years old. She is Mrs. Lingafelter's second wife and they have lived in this locality for several years. Mr. Lingafelter is operating a saw mill and has been away from home for several days.

Later advices from Chatbam fail to throw any light on the sad affair. Mr. Lingafelter was engaged in operating a saw mill at Fredonia, and as soon as possible he was notified and hurried home.

Mrs. Lingafelter was formerly Anna Kern, and lived at the home of W. F. Seymour, in this city. She was a dressmaker and worked at that vocation until Christmas day, 1905, when she was married to Mr. Lingafelter and went at once to his home.

Mrs. Seymour was interviewed by an Advocate man at her home on North street, and Mrs. Seymour stated that she could think of nothing that would cause the unfortunate woman to desire to end her life except that she was suffering from a temporary mental derangement.

During her career as a dressmaker Mrs. Lingafelter worked tirelessly, and was not in good health when she was married. Her work was a heavy strain on her nervous system and since her marriage she has been suffering from nervous disorders.

It is believed by many that her nervousness caused a temporary delirium and while in this condition she attempted self destruction.

The woman is a daughter of wealthy parents who live in Kansas. She had an aunt who formerly lived in Newark, but her place of residence is not known.

Neighbors who talked with Miss Belle Lingafelter, the unfortunate woman's stepdaughter, state that she gave a clear account of the tragedy. She had gone to the mail box, as was stated above and was on her way back when she heard the report of the gun. She little thought that her stepmother could have had anything to do with the report, and gave it no further thought until she saw Mrs. Lingafelter come out on the porch and call to her to hurry back.

As she neared the house she saw that Mrs. Lingafelter's arm was badly injured and blood was streaming from her finger tips. The woman's skirt and clothing were already covered with blood.

Miss Lingafelter made the woman comfortable and then hurried to a neighbor's, where she reported the accident. She then hurried to Chatbam, where she sent word to Newark for medical service.

The young woman is very much agitated for fear her friends and neighbors will look with suspicion on her as the two women were at home when the shooting occurred.

Mrs. Lingafelter's own statements completely vindicated the young stepdaughter. She is said to have remarked that the shot did not take effect where she intended it should, and is said to have expressed her regret that she was not successful.

The community about Chatbam has been thrown into a frenzy of excitement by the affair and no one is able to say whether the woman is sane or insane. (Continued on page 4, 5th col.)

WOMAN ACQUITTED OF MURDER IN ONLY 5 MINUTES

JURY IN MARYLAND CASE RETURNS A VERDICT IN RECORD TIME.

UPHOLDING 'UNWRITTEN LAW'

A Pathetic Scene in the Court Room—Judge Mudd's Eloquent Speech for the Defense.

La Platte, Md., July 12.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Mary Bowie, who was charged with her son, of killing Herbert Posey, who betrayed Priscilla Bowie, returned a verdict of acquittal this afternoon, after being out five minutes. The verdict is a most direct and unqualified endorsement of the "unwritten law." It is known that only one ballot was taken.

MUCH BITTERNESS DEVELOPED.

La Platte, Md., July 12.—Much bitterness has arisen between T. Hugh Posey, father of Herbert Posey, for whose death Mrs. Mary E. Bowie and her son, Henry, were tried here, and States Attorney Wilmer, that trouble was expected today before the case went to the jury. Posey says the prosecution has not made the proper efforts to punish the slayer of his son. Posey contended States Attorney Wilmer today and demanded to know why jurors who had announced that they thought the defendants did right were not challenged. He also demanded to know why certain evidence was not presented. The only reply of the state's attorney was "I am doing what I think is best for the country."

This was all the explanation Posey got. He was far from satisfied and there were ominous mutterings about the little town today. Fear of violence was expected.

When the court convened today Congressmen Sidney E. Mudd began his argument for the defense with the direct statement: "We place the defense in this case upon what we call the 'unwritten law.'" Then came this assertion:

"The widowed protector of a defenseless family was justified in committing this act."

"What I contend is the unwritten law is found in the progressive development of the common law. We have not resorted to what we consider as little less than the subterfuge of medical experts to move insanity."

"We do not believe and do not claim that these defendants are insane. It is said that we have resorted to fiction for the defense; that from Moses in Maryland the laws have been written."

If the judges can consistently resort to fiction in order the more appropriately to determine the right of a man to an acre of land, surely it need not be considered as such a monstrous thing to justify in this day, in this age, resort to what may be termed the unwritten law in order to preserve the life and virtue of the citizen and the home and the state."

Attorney Mudd then spoke for the prosecution. He depended mainly upon a story of the young son of Charles county.

POSEY'S LETTERS.

La Platte, Md., July 12.—The pathetic love letters of Priscilla Bowie who appeared in court today with her fatherless baby in her arms, to be present at the closing scenes of the trial of her mother and brother for killing Herbert Posey, who wooed and

A HEAVY SENTENCE WAS METED OUT TO CONVICTED BRIDGE TRUST MEN

Toledo, July 12.—Bridge trust men Harry Hammond and W. N. Cleveland this morning were sentenced by Judge Morris in the Circuit court to six months imprisonment. Members of lumber trusts, fourteen in number including all the prominent local lumber dealers were given the same sentence. Members of the Toledo Brick Supply company, who pleaded guilty to pooling under the Valentine law, were fined $1,000 and costs each. The section of the law under which they pleaded provides that no prison sentence shall be imposed.

betrayed her, is reflected in the affectionate letters she received from him. Excerpts from the notes which she identified with tear filled eyes, follow:

"I never did love but one girl in my life, and that one is you."

"If you will be true to me, sweetheart, I will be true to you. I will forsake all other girls for you."

"I dream of you by night; I think of you all day long."

"I would be happy as the angels in heaven, sweetheart, if you were only here tonight."

"You know I love you better than I ever loved any girl and you know I will never forsake you."

"Last Sunday I stayed at home and read your sweet letters and looked at your dear picture."

"I don't want to go anywhere unless you are by my side."

"It seems a year since I saw you, but in reality it is but a few hours."

"I can never tell you how much I love you."

"Oh, if I could only kiss you tonight."

FREAK CYCLONE

STRUCK COAL MINE

Vincennes, Ind., July 12.—Thomas Judson, engineer, Newton Chambers, fireman, and Louis Freeman, a cashier, were buried under the walls of the boiler house of the Freeman coal mine at Becknell, Knox county, which was wrecked by a freak cyclone. Judson was fatally injured, his skull being crushed. The powder house at the mines and the blacksmith shop were demolished. Miss J. M. Becknell and three children were rendered unconscious when the roof fell in.

VICE PRESIDENT DIVES TO SAVE DROWNING GIRL

Yellowstone Park, Wyo., July 12.—After leaping into 30 feet of water and saving a young woman from drowning, Vice President Fairbanks is the hero of Yellowstone Lake. His rescue of the girl, who was struggling in the water, was a feat of the most heroic kind. Fairbanks, who is a member of the Yellowstone Park board, was on a boat with a group of friends when the girl fell overboard. He immediately jumped in and swam to her, holding her up until the boat was pulled up to the shore.

VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

boat was all the more precarious because of the fact that the discarded oil, his coat before jumping into the water and saved the young woman, although hampered by his clothes and heavy shoes.

DO SPIRITUALISTS CONTROL RUSSIA?

Berlin, July 12.—Fake spirits absolutely rule Russia today. The spiritualist fakirs are preying on the Czar's superstitious belief in spiritualism and mysticism, and dominate the monarch completely. These fakirs, in turn controlled by a court clique, through the alleged communications with the spirits of Nicholas' ancestors guide the emperor's wavering policy.

COMPLAINT MADE That Jap Girls Are Imported to This Country and Virtually Sold into Slavery.

Washington, July 12.—A vigorous protest has been received by the government from the Japanese and Korean Expulsion league, the headquarters of which are at Seattle, Wash., against what is asserted to be an organized traffic in Japanese women, who, it is alleged, are being brought to this country in large numbers for immoral purposes. The protest declares that wholesale misrepresentation, perjury and fraud are perpetrated on the part of immigrants and perjury and collusion on the part of the Japanese residents in this country. It is stated that the traffic is regularly organized and that women are brought into the country and sold into a system of slavery. In connection with the traffic there is said to exist a gang of blackmailers, composed of Japanese, who live on the hush money collected from the importers of the Japanese slave girls.

"OUIDA" IN WANT

Famous Novelist is Now Living in the Shack of an Italian Milkman. May be Pensioned.

London, July 12.—The appearance of the name of the English novelist Ouida (Louise De La Ramée) on the new list of civil pensions for literary merit occasioned some surprise here. Inquiries were at once made concerning the novelist's circumstances, and from them it turns out that the pension of $750 a year granted by the government is a gratuity of some 100,000 francs. Ouida, who is now 80 years of age, is a native of Hungary. She was married to an Italian, but he died, and she was reduced to a state of absolute poverty, being sometimes actually in want of food. Latterly she has been living in a milkman's squalid cottage, the milkman being her only support.

PRES. ROOSEVELT WAS ENTERTAINING AT OYSTER BAY

Oyster Bay, July 12.—President Roosevelt entertained a distinguished company at luncheon this afternoon, including Admiral Baron Yamamoto, Viscount Aoki, Japanese ambassador, Motoki Kondo, the Mikado's inspector of naval construction and others. The President and Admiral Yamamoto are said to have greeted each other warmly and expressed the belief that the friendly relations existing between the United States and Japan would continue for generations.

DOCTORS REFUSE TO CUT TONGUE

Springfield, July 12.—Because physicians refused to cut away a portion of his tongue that was affected by cancer, John Green, a wealthy citizen and owner of a large main elevator, cut out a portion of his tongue Thursday afternoon.

JAPANESE SPY WAS ARRESTED IN CALIFORNIA

HE WAS CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF MAKING DRAWING OF THE U. S. FORT.

THE JAPANESE AMBASSADOR

Says the Talk of Trouble Between the Two Countries is Made Up by the Newspapers.

San Diego, Cal., July 12.—A Japanese has been arrested at Fort Rosecrans. Major Getchell states that the Japanese was drawing plans of the fort, that he was not a servant, but a stranger, and that there is heavy punishment for the offense. He declined to give the name of the Japanese and would not say what he had done with the prisoner.

New York, July 12.—That there is no unfriendly issue between the United States and Japan is the declaration of two distinguished Japanese, Admiral Yamamoto, who is a guest of New York, and Ambassador Aoki, who came over from Washington to attend a reception in honor of the former.

Ambassador Aoki said: "There exists between the governments no difference or ill-feeling of whatever sort. There is not the slightest cause for anxiety in the American-Japanese relations; and if there is any anxiety it is not because of the actual existence of any difficulty between the two countries, but because of the demagogic influence of some unwarranted press talk, that often tends to drive even the calmest temper of the public into a whirl of tempestuous rage."

Admiral Yamamoto, speaking at the luncheon at the Hotel Astor, said among other things: "Our interests, commercial and otherwise, are so intimately interwoven, and the cordial relations between us of 50 years' standing are of so firm a nature, that I can confidently affirm that they will never be destroyed by mere trifling incidents. Men are essentially prone to be controlled by sentiment, and it is the duty of those in leading positions to see that they are always guided in the path of righteousness, and that they are not led astray."

Comment of Ito's Organ.

Tokio, July 12.—The massing of the American fleet in the Pacific, about which American papers have applied to Marquis Ito for an opinion, is semi-officially discussed by Ito's administration organ. The paper says: "We cannot help feeling some misgiving with regard to the significance of the intended massing of American battleships in the Pacific, especially in view of grandiose announcement attributed to President Roosevelt to the effect that the navy would furnish the world with a startling demonstration of America's defensible capacity. It is difficult for us to accept the assurance that the coming maneuvers do not possess any connection whatever with the Japanese-American situation. We regret that Washington thinks it necessary to take what resembles a precautionary measure. However, we are not disposed to attach serious importance to this matter, and have no inclination to doubt the president's sincerity in assuring the peaceful nature of the proposed maneuvers."

Bryan On the War Talk.

Carthage, Mo., July 12.—"Japan does not desire to make war upon the United States," William J. Bryan is quoted as saying. "Of course," he continued, "there is a lot of jingoism in this Japanese war talk and the hurry-ing of a fleet of warships to the Pacific coast. To my mind the object is not to repel an expected attack of the Japanese, but that the talk is being done by some alleged statesman at Washington to influence congress to make a big naval extension appropriation. When I say Japan does not want war I do so advisedly, for when I was in Japan I talked with the leading men of all walks of life and I found only expressions of friendship for our country."

PRES. ROOSEVELT WAS ENTERTAINING AT OYSTER BAY

Oyster Bay, July 12.—President Roosevelt entertained a distinguished company at luncheon this afternoon, including Admiral Baron Yamamoto, Viscount Aoki, Japanese ambassador, Motoki Kondo, the Mikado's inspector of naval construction and others. One of the most active workers in securing the college for Redlands was the Rev. J. N. Field, a graduate of Denison, who is well remembered by many Granville people. Redlands secured the college by the generous offer of a site and a cash bonus of $100,000. This cash bonus of $100,000 is to be given on condition that the sum of $240,000 is raised from other sources in Southern California, and the committee from the commission to secure this fund will begin at once a vigorous canvass for the money. This canvass will be practically in the hands of Rev. Mr. Field, although a committee will have the matter in hand. This college will without question, be a high class institution, amply endowed from the beginning, and no doubt in line for a share of the Rockefeller millions at a later day. Rev. Interstate Commission's Ruling. Washington, July 12.—In an opinion handed down for the interstate commerce commission by Commissioner Harlan, the rule is laid down that while a rate fixed by state statutes or a state commission "is naturally and properly entitled to respectful consideration, it has no greater sanctity, as applied to interstate traffic, than a rate established by a railroad company, and this commission would not hesitate, upon proper evidence that a rate so established would be unjust, either to a carrier or to a shipper, to refuse it as a basis for fixing an interstate rate."

DAUGHTER ILL AND MR. HAMILL RETURNS

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hamill, who left Wednesday with Prosecuting Attorney James R. Fitzgibbon and wife and Harry Fulton in Mr. Fitzgibbon's new Stevens-Duryea six cylinder touring car for a trip through southern Ohio and to the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky, upon arriving at Dayton received word that their daughter, Mary, was sick, and were compelled to return home.

Mr. Hamill says that the trip from Columbus to Dayton was made through mud and rain; that in some places the mud was six inches deep, but that the machine went through it as easily as an ordinary machine would travel on the level road. Mr. Hamill also says that Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgibbon and Mr. Fulton continued on the way to Cincinnati, where they were joined on Friday by Miss Grace Fulton.

STEREOPTIC LECTURE

Rev. U. S. Milburn of Albany, N. Y., will give a stereopticon lecture at the Summit Universalist church Saturday evening, July 13, at 8 o'clock, the subject being "Switzerland; Its Scenery and People." About 100 pictures will be thrown upon the screen, many of them from original photographs by the lecturer, showing the August ice and snow 2,000 feet above the snow line, where avalanches fall throughout the summer, he being tied to a guide while taking the photographs, the picturesque scenery, the mighty glaciers, the people, the lakes unsurpassed in beauty, the towering Alps. Mr. Milburn was three months in Europe last summer and will simply tell what he saw and experienced while touring in the Alps, the story illustrated by the beautiful pictures of the scenes he describes. This lecture was given four times in the city of Cortland, N. Y., to crowded houses. The press of central New York speak in the highest commendation of the lecture. The Marathon Independent said: "His pictures are especially fine and his descriptions of places and incidents are given in a graphic and impressive manner." The Herkimer Evening Journal said: "His power of description is realistic." The Cortland Democrat said: "The funny side of life does not escape Mr. Milburn, and amusing, ludicrous incidents of travel lose nothing in the telling. It was a delightful, highly interesting and instructive lecture." The admission will be 20 cents. Children 10 cents.

FELL FROM CAB AND WAS BADLY BRUISED

B. & O. Engineer S. S. Walker Narrowly Escaped More Serious Injuries.

At about 3:30 Thursday afternoon Bowers & Cross Bros.' ambulance was called to the B. & O. yards on account of an accident that happened to S. S. Walker, the well known engineer. Mr. Walker had just come in from the east and was leaning out of the cab and in some way became overbalanced and fell to the ground, striking on his head, the concussion rendering him unconscious.

Dr. Barnes was called and found that beyond having the breath knocked out of him, he was otherwise unhurt, and after being removed to his residence, 74 Vine street, at this writing is all right except being very sore from the effects of his fall.

ELECTROCUTION

Is the Fate That Harry Payne Narrowly Escaped at the B. O. Shops Thursday Afternoon.

Mr. Harry Payne, the electrician at the B. & O. power house, had a narrow escape from being electrocuted Thursday afternoon. He was engaged in tightening up a nut, and was standing on a chair that enabled him to reach the loose nut more easily, and in some manner the wrench that he was using completed a circuit and he got a part of the charge into his body.

Four of his fingers were severely burned by the current and the heat was so great that the wrench practically blew up, for at the instant of the accident a report was heard, and not a particle of the wrench has been found since. It was burned up.

If Mr. Payne had not been standing on a chair which partially insulated him, he would have, no doubt, been instantly killed by the intense current. It was a narrow escape.

Mr. Payne is recovering from the shock today. Dr. Wright, who dressed his injuries, thinks that he may be able to attend to his duties by Saturday.

The decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission that negro railroad passengers are entitled to the same treatment as white passengers is a step toward justice to the white population.

What a prospect for fat jobs is held out in the threatened government policy of receiverships for the great trusts. Stockholders of many a railroad and bank have found to their sorrow that the receivers and their agents have gobbled most of the receipts.

Sackett's Harbor is in the strongly Republican part of the Northern State of New York. But the people there have protested to the war department against garrisoning colored troops in Madison barracks. About the only place to quarter the colored regiments is the Philippines. The Filipinos probably don't mind them; and, if they do, they can't help themselves. They don't vote.

PRESIDENT BACKS

Prosecution of Schmitz, Says the Priest. Who Claims it is a Political Scheme.

Milwaukee, July 12.—"President Roosevelt, in his almost vindictive desire to obtain criminal evidence against E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, is forcing the prosecution of the alleged grafters in San Francisco, hoping to unearth some evidence of wrongdoing with which to connect Mr. Harriman. The president was the guiding hand in the prosecution and conviction of Mayor Schmitz."

This statement was made by Rev. P. C. Yorke of San Francisco, who is here attending the meeting of the Catholic Educational Association. Father Yorke is a warm friend of the disgraced Mayor, and does not hesitate to speak out in his behalf. He claimed the entire prosecution was a political plot hatched for the purpose of displacing Schmitz and putting in power a ring. He denounced Judge Dunne, Spreckels, Phelan and others, who, according to his accusations, were tarred with the same stick. "Judge Dunne, Rudolph Spreckels and one or two others, are more on trial before the people of San Francisco than Schmitz," he said.

"Judge Dunne is a dyspeptic young lawyer who recently graduated from the law school and the Schmitz case was the first criminal trial over which he presided. The whole thing is politics, growing out of a determination

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE MEETING JULY 20TH

It should be remembered by the Democracy of Licking county that the called meeting of the Central Committee on July 20, is a highly important event. All Democrats of the county are cordially invited to be present on the occasion. The business to be transacted at the meeting is of the greatest importance to the Democrats of all the townships and villages of the county.

It is highly necessary that some uniform plan be adopted for the nominations of the various township and municipal officers.

Uniformity as to the time when of certain wealthy men to get Schmitz out of office and make it impossible for him to ever be a candidate again.

"Generally debilitated for years. Had sick headache, lacked ambition, was worn-out and all run-down. Eudoxus Blood Purifier made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Fretley, Moonsville, Conn.

THIS AND THAT

The least said about the weather is when it is the most beautiful, enjoyable, and really worth discussing.

The London editors are so excited these days that they can see nothing but American-Japanese war clouds.

Just now there are a great many hot weather "don'ts." We would add to the list: Don't overwork the exasperating phonograph.

An Iowa woman who spanked her boy is suffering from a reactionary effect that is described as blood-poisoning. The punished boy is doing as well as could be expected.

The show that Judge Landis contemplated in his court when he ordered John D. Rockefeller brought in as a witness was far from realization. It is admitted on all sides that what John D. didn't know would make a much larger book than what he did know.

It has been settled that an automobile can bump a street car off the track, but not without jarring all the people immediately concerned.

Two colored men got into a heated argument and as a finisher one of them squelched the other with: "Man, you ain't got no sense at all, ef yo' brains was ink, dere wouldn't be enough ink in dat head ob yours to dot an 'i' with."

The pet bull dog is a neighborly animal, but the neighbors whose grass he tears up and mangles, do not highly appreciate his alleged friendship.

A good deal of heroic capital has been worked off in behalf of Mr. Fairbanks because he "plunged into a lake" to rescue a girl from drowning. But it turns out that Mr. Fairbanks simply waded in, knowing that his legs were amply long enough for the depth of the water.

The weather bureau can now say "cooler" without frightening the people with the idea that there is going to be a frost.

LARGEST OIL WELL IN THE WORLD

Steubenville, July 12.—The largest oil well known to have been struck in the world in Berea sand, came in the Congo field across the river. It is flowing almost twelve hundred barrels daily. It was shot this morning and took six men to place the cap to stop the flow. E. H. Tagne of Washington, Pa., is the owner.

VANDERBILT MUST PROVE HIS SANITY

Because He Married Medium Who Write Letters Purporting to be From Dead Wife.

New York, July 12.—A commission in lunacy was appointed Friday to determine the sanity of Edward Ward Vanderbilt, who was married six weeks ago to Mary Ann Scannell, alias Pepper, the spiritualist medium who made "Little Bright Eyes" famous. His marriage to the Pepper woman was the direct cause of the commission in lunacy.

The commission that is to decide upon Mr. Vanderbilt's competency is composed of Herbert T. Keacham, lawyer; Henry A. Fairbairn, physician, and Herbert G. Taylor, layman. Taylor is a banker.

Justice Maddox of Brooklyn, in deciding upon lunacy commission handed down a brief opinion in which he said that the evidence submitted to him justified a further inquiry by a commission. In reference to Mrs. Pepper he said that a great deal of extraneous matter had been introduced and that it needed no comment.

The application for the commission in lunacy was made by Minerva Vanderbilt, daughter of Mr. Vanderbilt, and by her aunt and uncle. They charged that Mr. Vanderbilt had been influenced to marry Mrs. Pepper by spirit letters, alleged to have been written by the spirit of Mr. Vanderbilt's deceased wife, and by the Indian spirit "Bright Eyes." The letters were actually written in the handwriting of Mrs. Pepper.

JUGGLING CITY ACCOUNTS.

Lincoln (Neb.) Citizens Kept In the Dark as to the Cost of Their Street Lights.

Lincoln, Neb., is getting an unenviable notoriety through the attempts of its officials to make it appear that its expensive municipal electric plant is supplying arc lights at a low figure.

In the report of the city auditor for the seven months ended March 31, 1906, although some of the elements of cost were omitted, the evident intention was to give a fair showing. But unfortunately it was shown that the cost ($73.68 a year for lamps burning only 2,300 hours) was larger than the contract price for lamps supplied by private companies in neighboring cities. This was unsatisfactory, of course.

Accordingly in the annual report for the year ended Aug. 31, 1906, there was a deliberate omission of depreciation and interest charges on that part of the plant's cost not covered by bonds—$21,601, or one-quarter of the total construction cost. Apparently, also, the lighting schedule had been reduced to keep the cost down, as the report shows that the lamps burned only 1,998 hours during the year. By these devices the cost was reduced to $50.09.

Soon after the appearance of this report the mayor gave out in a newspaper interview that the plant had been grossly mismanaged and that it was furnishing lights all night and every night at a cost of $51.12 a year. It is charitable to suppose that his honor was unaware of the fact that to give all night every night service the lamps must burn 4,000 hours a year instead of 1,998, as shown by the report quoted above.

At about the time the mayor's investigation appeared an investigation of the plant was made by Professors C. H. Richards and G. H. Morse of the University of Nebraska. Their detailed report gives the cost per arc per annum as $98.84 for an all night service, nearly double the cost claimed by the mayor. This report was made by the city's consulting engineer, but Mayor Brown, who is a candidate for re-election, has apparently not accepted its findings, although, according to the Omaha Bee, he now places the cost at $63.29.

It is worth noting that the original estimate for this plant was $55,000 construction cost and $25,103 annual expense. The actual construction cost, as shown in the auditor's report, was $86,091, nearly 55 per cent in excess of the estimate. The annual expense, as shown by the expert report, is $32,519, exceeding the estimate by 23 per cent.

This is a typical example of the sort of understating that leads cities to adopt municipal ownership and also of the official juggling of figures by which the public is temporarily prevented from learning that it has a white elephant on its hands.

STEAMERS BOTHER LONDON.

Council Can't Sell Them—Will Run Them Awhile—Wages and Fares to Be Cut.

Those who have made statements to the effect that the new London county council is not opposed to municipal ownership will find it hard to explain the report recently submitted by the committee having in charge the matter of the Thames steamboats.

In this report it is stated that they had tried in vain to sell or lease them and that their final decision to run them for four and a half months during the summer "must not be taken as endorsing the previous policy of the council or as implying any intention that the boats should be worked after the summer season. On the contrary, it is put forward as the best, if not the only practical, method of dealing with the problem presented to us." The committee also proposed to reduce fares and to diminish the wages of the employees, which they consider in excess of what is equitable.

In regard to the scheme for an enormous municipal lighting and power plant, the preliminary steps for which were taken by the old council, the present council has put itself on record to the effect that if this scheme goes through under no circumstances will the city operate the plant.

The Figures Would Open Their Eyes.
There can be no doubt that all the water supplied free by municipal water departments should be paid for by the particular bureaus or departments that use it, just as would be the case if they were supplied by a private company. The water so used is a debt to the taxpayers of the town, and if the statistics of free water were published the eyes of water consumers would be opened as to how much they are taxed for the payment of water to sprinkle boulevards, streets in front of nonwater paying tenants and water to protect the property of people who make their tenants pay for their supplies of water—Editorial in Fire and Water Engineering.

Figured Profits the Usual Way.
Although the last annual report of the Crawfordville (Ind.) municipal electric light plant shows a "net profit" of $8,727, the trustees have just made a 10 per cent advance in the charge for street lighting. This may be accounted for by the fact that the "profits" are figured before allowing for interest and depreciation, which amount to nearly $10,000 a year.

The municipal electric lighting plant of Knightstown, Ind., is in need of extensive repairs, and it is proposed to issue $10,000 in bonds if approved by a referendum vote. The members of the city council contend that prices for electric service must be greatly increased to make the plant self sustaining—Electrical World.

GOOD REASONS

GIVEN BY A FORMER ENGLISH CLERGYMAN FOR BECOMING AN AMERICAN.

Says He Never Did Believe in an Hereditary Monarchy as it Exists in Great Britain.

New York, July 12.—Explaining his reasons today for seeking to become an American citizen the Rev. Chas. Aked, the English, imported minister of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, Rockefeller's church, dealt several heavy blows at the government of King Edward, which he recently foreswore.

"Let us take negative reasons first," he said. "To begin in America there is no hereditary monarchy. I have always had a contempt for monarchy. I agree with Mark Twain that if he had tomcats King Tom I. up to King Tom XX. they would have been just as useful and just as moral."

"Second, here there is no house of lords to sit on one's chest and stifle one's best ambitions and block every path to political ambition."

"Third, you have no established church. I believe with John Morely that the state government of religion has divided England into two hostile camps, from the time of Queen Elizabeth."

"Fourth, America has no sectarian system of education—and of all hateful things English sectarianism with its narrowness, its snobbery, its political and moral dishonesty, is one of the most hateful on the face of the earth."

"Fifth, you have no such military despotism—no such caste and class and no such vast vested interests in the promotion of war."

"Finally, the drink evil is nothing in America in comparison with what it is in England."

For positive reasons Dr. Aked said the standards of education and morals are higher and the relations of the sexes are freer and healthier.

"I have always loved America," he concluded. "Had not duties in England tied me I should have come long ago. I am beginning to regret I waited so long."

to throw the least light on the cause of the rash deed.

All the friends and neighbors testify that the domestic relations of the family were most pleasant. Both Miss Lingafelter and her stepmother were very intimate and were very companionable. During a recent visit to Newark, Mrs. Lingafelter spoke very highly of her husband's daughter and the suspicion that the young woman might have been the cause of some trouble was quickly dispelled.

OFFICER KILLED ANOTHER WOUNDED

Pittsburg, July 12.—In a fight between negroes and policemen at East Pittsburg, one policeman was killed and another was probably fatally wounded. The dead man was Patrick Sullivan. It had been decided to raid a negro resort in the rear of a place in Linden avenue. When the officers broke in upon the men gathered there the negroes began shooting. Officer Sullivan fell with a bullet in his head and died a few minutes later. Another officer, whose name could not be learned, was also struck by a bullet, and was hurried to the hospital.

Will Kitchens and Jessie McCollum, both negroes, were publicly hanged in the courthouse yard at Marion, Ark. Kitchens was convicted of murder, McCollum of assault on an aged negro.

R. F. Hoover, a baggage handler, was electrocuted in Kansas City, Kan., by coming in contact with a guy wire that had fallen from a trolley and crossed with a live trolley wire.

SPURNED

By the Man She Loved, Mrs. Liss Used a Gun—The Judge Took Pity on Her.

Cleveland, O., July 12.—Strenuous wooing of Peter Covelli resulted in the arrest of pretty Mrs. Kate Liss on the charge of assault and battery Thursday.

Peter said the young wife had been making love to him, contrary to most strenuous wooings, and that he, a married man, had spurned her.

"So she not like me more," said Peter. "She take the gun. She fire once, twice, five times. Bing! How I frighten. I not like that at all."

"So," said Peter ending the story of his unromantic actions "I have her arrested."

But Judge Fiedler looked at the baby in Mrs. Liss's arms, and let her go on a suspended sentence.

"You musn't make love so strenuously," he warned her.

GOOD TIME

Over His Grave Provided For by the Austrian Before He Shot Himself.

New York, July 12.—Leaving a lead pencil will giving $400 to four of his friends, and a provision that $25 should be spent by his friends in having a good time over his grave, a man supposed to be Stefan Magaisy, an Austrian, with a lone nickel in his pockets, took his life on the Mall in Central Park just before noon on Thursday, by shooting himself.

A memorandum book was found in a pocket and written in it in German was the following:

"I am 65 years old and out of work. My name is Stefan Magaisy. I will shoot myself in the right temple in Central park. As soon as I am found, please notify Mr. Alfred Lang, 182 East Third street, New York."

There was also a memorandum, meant for a will in which it was instructed that four friends be each given $100 out of his estate. Then there was this provision, which caused amazement among the police and coroner's jury, $25 taken

OLIVER PRIEST IS INGENIOUS

Oliver Priest, the fireman at the Central fire department, has a brand new croquet mallet. It is one of his own make and is beautifully ornamented with highly polished brass bands and bright brass headed tacks.

A beautifully scrolled silver name plate with the owner's initials artistically engraved in Old English letters finishes the ornaments on the handsome mallet.

Priest's friends assert that he has spent his odd moments for the past ten days in making the mallet and he is proudly exhibiting it to all the "habituals" about the fire station.

This calls to mind that a fine croquet court has been built back of the fire department and patrol station and the fire laddie, spend many an enjoyable hour playing this old but interesting game.

Chief Sheridan of the police department has not yet become infatuated with the game and still sticks to the old reliable "ping-pong." He looks on the croquet game with a derisive grin. He says the next thing will be pink teas for the fire laddies on the croquet grounds.

BANK ROBBER ESCAPED OFFICERS

Detroit, Mich., July 12.—Albert Peverette, the notorious bank robber, escaped from the guards while being taken to Marquette penitentiary last night. He was shackled hand and foot. ## WORLD'S LARGEST TOWN

Mr. Sam McCort who has just returned from a trip through the southern states tells many interesting stories of his experiences there. One of them is as follows:

"I was at Henderson, North Carolina, demonstrating, and to rest myself, I put my foot on a stone that was out of the ground about a foot. One of the natives said, 'Do you know that your foot is resting on the marker for this town, and which was once the largest town in the whole world?' Of course I was immediately interested and asked him to explain. 'When this town was laid out,' he responded, 'the intention was to take in by the charter, which was granted by the state legislature, 1200 yards of territory in all directions, but by some error it was made to read 1200 miles, so Henderson was by an act of the Assembly a town whose border was as far west as St. Louis, eastwardly 1100 miles out in the ocean, and north as far as New York, and south to the lower end of Florida. Some property complications brought the error to notice, and the legislature had to pass a special act, and put Henderson back where it belonged. Yes, sir, we were about all there was once.'"

Streets Rivers of Blazing Oil. Bridgeport, Ill., July 12.—After working all day damming the streets, in which ran rivers of blazing oil from the exploding tanks of an oil refinery west of the village, the citizens of Bridgeport managed to save their homes. Dikes were made to cut off the flames from the residences, and the damage was confined to the refinery and its vicinity. The loss will total $150,000. No lives were lost.

Weak Hearts

Upon the heart action depends not only health, but life. Over-work, worry, great mental effort, sickness, or any unusual strain upon the nervous system, affects the heart, by increasing its labors. In this hustling age it is not surprising that one person in four has a weak heart. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens the heart nerves and muscles and restores healthy activity.

"I wrote the Miles Medical Co., asking advice as I was suffering with heart trouble and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and left side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side, without suffering. They advised Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Verine, which I took with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 14 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines and haven't been troubled one bit with my heart since. I recommend it to every one suffering as I did."

HOODOO COMES TO TOWN WITH EDW. TARGETT

TOLD MAYOR HE COULDN'T COME TO TOWN WITHOUT BEING LOCKED UP.

Was Locked Up For Being Drunk—Three Train Riders Sent to the Stonepile.

Ed Targett, who was before Mayor McCleery a week ago on a charge of stealing chickens, was again brought in this morning, this time on a drunk charge. Targett had been drinking since he was found not guilty by the mayor, and numerous complaints have been received about his conduct during the past few days.

He told the mayor that ill luck seemed to come with him every time he blew into town. He said he was arrested almost as soon as he set foot across the corporation line.

Targett is a molder by occupation and capable of making good money when he works. He was fined $5 and costs and sent to the city prison.

Officer Foreman of the B. & O. company, pinched three train riders who had "taken refuge" in an outgoing freight train during Thursday's storm. All were fined $5 and costs and sent to the stone pile.

WE NEED IT HERE

(Utica News-Herald.)

The recent fire in this city simply emphasizes the fact that help from Newark is not to be depended upon because their Ahrens engine is not in shape for an emergency. The editor of the News-Herald takes the position that Newark would do well to put her self in form to help Utica in the hour of her extremity which might come at any time. Utica stands ready to pay for such help. Indeed, she has paid for it on a former occasion. Let it be said here that the B. & O. railway people have been appreciative of the situation and the need of this city. On one occasion when Utica was on fire they hastily equipped and ran an emergency train when they were advised that the business section of the place was menaced. The train was run gratis. It comes reliably to the News-Herald that Utica is a greater retail feeder to Newark than any other city. Viewed in a purely selfish light Newark should keep her fire engine in serviceable condition. She might need it herself; Utica probably will. By reason that Newark is in Licking county our people more often drift there than to Mt. Vernon or any other town. The phenomenal growth of Utica has made the urban trade from it a factor not to be overlooked. The board of trade in Newark might do well toward themselves and this city by looking after that one item in the fire fighting system, which within its scope is as good as it possibly could be. Utica has not yet grown to the size where she can establish one for herself. She would like to lean on Newark. Newark has quite a business section in easy reach of the Ohio canal. If a break in her water mains should occur during a fire it would be a good thing to have her engine in serviceable shape.

SEEKING HIS SON.

Chillicothe, O., July 12.—Edward Rutter of Harrison township, appealed to the authorities here Thursday to assist him in regaining his two-year old son, who was taken by his wife when she left with a man by the name of Coey. Rutter was compelled to come to the hospital in this city to submit to a surgical operation, and was here for about two weeks seriously ill. When he recovered, he found that his home was broken up. He traced the couple to Portsmouth and wanted to pay an officer to go there and kidnap the boy, but he was advised that if he will go to Portsmouth the authorities there will secure his child for him.

Robbers Hanged.
St. Petersburg, July 12.—Three of the participants in the pawnshop robbery in this city of June 12, after trial by court martial, have been hanged. The case of the fourth robber is to be investigated a second time.

"HIGHWAYMEN"

"ROBBERS AND MURDERERS," SAYS KOREAN PRINCE OF THE JAPANESE.

In His Appeal to The Hague Peace Conference Asking Intervention of World's Powers.

The Hague, July 12.—"Highwaymen, barbarians, murderers," are the mildest terms Prince Tjyong Oul Yi, of Korea has for the Japanese in voicing his appeals to The Hague Peace Conference for the powers aid in saving his country from the Mikado's oppression. "Japan is trying to steal Korea as barefacedly as every highwayman robbed a coach," he told a S. M. P. A. representative today discussing his message from the Korean people. "Many of our public men have committed suicide rather than submit to the barbarities of the Japanese government. Our emperor is the Mikado's prisoner. It is untrue that he has repudiated his representatives at The Hague. His jailors have tried to discredit us—that's all."

"I accuse Japan of unheard-of infamy in its treatment of Korea. I venture to doubt whether England will continue satisfied with her Japanese alliance when she learns in detail the story of Japan's treachery against Korea and the permanent lie by which the Mikado is maintaining his usurpation of our rights."

"In its declaration of war against Russia Japan declared that one of its principal reasons for beginning hostilities was its desire to insure Korea's independence, as America pledged Cuban independence at the outbreak of the war with Spain."

"The world can see now how differently Japan and America regard their pledges."

"Korea considers America its best friend and Koreans are profoundly grateful for the manner in which the United States has always aided their country by word and deed."

"The world would protest in horror if it knew the true conditions. While Japan is complaining of the treatment accorded its citizens in California it is subjecting Koreans to far worse indignities in the Mikado's land."

"Ignorant, barbarous immigrants from Japan are invading the country like locusts and behave as if they owned it."

"Every village has its tale of cattle stealing, house breaking and the outrages of defenseless women by the Japanese."

"The Japanese authorities in Korea never act against Japanese malefactors and there is no redress for the wrongs the people suffer."

"When the Mikado seized Korea in 1905, Tokio promised the powers to respect all Korean treaties. Now it is trying to find a way to break them all, especially those relating to trade rights and the most favored nation clauses in tariff agreements."

"Japan wishes its own exports to enter Korea duty free but would impose a tariff of forty to fifty percent ad valorem on other country's goods."

"The Chinese have the greatest commercial interests in Korea, but America, Germany, and England are also heavily interested. America in particular has vast investments in the country and manufactures enormous quantities of goods for which there is immense demand among Koreans."

"If Japan is permitted to break all existing treaties there will be an end to the powers hope of securing the trade of our 15,000,000 people."

Some men would sacrifice their own comfort for that of a friend. This is more true of some men, however, than of others.

CLEVELAND

Was Selected as the Next Meeting Place of the National Educational Association.

Los Angeles, July 12.—The national council of the National Educational association, in executive session, adopted the following resolutions: "That a committee of five be appointed by the president of the council whose duty it shall be to consider and report to this council what steps may be possible toward securing the co-operation of the various organizations for the promotion of education and the consideration of its problems that may exist in the various civilized countries of the world." Joseph Swain, president of Southwestern college, Southwestern, Pa., was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year. J. M. Green of Trenton, N. J., was elected vice president, and J. W. Carr, incumbent, was re-elected secretary. Cleveland will get the meeting in 1908.

To Settle Strike.
Havana, July 12.—A conference was held here of the members of the cigar manufacturers' combine and the independent firms for the purpose of arranging a settlement of the strike of the cigarmakers, who went out last February, demanding the payment of their wages in American instead of Spanish money. No definite decision was reached.

WHISKERS IN SUICIDE'S WAY

Form a Cushion For the Rope, and the Owner Repents.

Things have been going wrong of late with Thomas Becker, a farmer, near Euclid, N. Y. The other morning at breakfast he was so disturbed that he shook his head until his long beard, the longest and bushiest in Tompkins county, had dusted all the crumbs from his place at the table, says an Iliaca special dispatch to the New York Times.

"There'll be something doing soon around here," he remarked ominously to his wife, as he and his monumental beard moved off toward the barn.

There Becker threw a rope over a crossbeam, made it fast at one end and arranged a noose at the other. The noose he put around his neck as he stood on a feed bucket. Then he laboriously tied knots in a rope that fastened his hands behind his back. That accomplished, he bade farewell to the world and stepped off the bucket.

Twenty minutes later Mrs. Becker, becoming anxious, went to the barn in search of her husband. There she found him hanging, more or less comfortably, and looking sheepish.

"Are you alive, Thomas?" she inquired in trembling tones.

"I am," answered Mr. Becker. "Do you suppose any one could choke himself with a mattress of whiskers between the rope and his throat?"

That was the fact. The would-be suicide in his nervousness had failed to take his beard into the calculation, and it formed an effective cushion.

"You'll not try it again, will you?" pleaded Mrs. Becker after she had freed her husband.

"No," said Becker reflectively. "To make a job of it I'd have to cut off my whiskers, and I've been growing 'em too long to waste 'em now."

BAND AS A CHURCH LURE.

Chicago Pastor Would Give a Concert Before Sunday Evening Service.

Salvation to the tune of a good band. That is the idea of the Rev. E. Johnston Myers, pastor of Immanuel Baptist congregation, 2508 Michigan avenue, Chicago, says a special dispatch to the New York World.

"The people want sensations in church as well as anywhere else. Why not give it to them?" he says.

"We must reach the people, get in contact with them, and any fair and honest means is justified. I would jump at the chance to get a good band to give a concert on Sunday evenings an hour or so before service."

"I believe it would draw a crowd. And after the musicians had played outside the building I would have them come in and finish the concert. That would attract many outsiders in. Perhaps once inside they would be good enough to remain."

"There are not many brave ministers today. The majority are afraid to do anything. They lack the courage to face the possibility of defeat and humiliation. If always cuts the sinew. The little fellow does the little work which he sees mapped out for him, because he can't possibly lose. God loves brave men. Men like a man who dares to do."

TO END BLACK HAND.

Organization of New Orleans Italians Plans to Deport Criminals.

To bid Louisiana and the south of the Black Hand and other secret Italian brigandage is the object of the Italian vigilance committee, headed by Judge Philip Paterno, an exporter, and composed of the best class of Italians in New Orleans, says the New York Tribune.

A systematic crusade has already been started. The names of fifty suspicious Italians at present living in New Orleans are in a black box, sealed and locked. These are looked upon as bad characters. The records of these men will be investigated in Italy, and if it is proved that any one of them has served a term in prison—and it is believed that many have—they will be deported under the laws of the United States. It is the intention of the vigilantes to solve the Black Hand outrages with despatch. Every dangerous character will be driven out of the United States just as soon as his identity is established.

THE ELEPHANT BUG.

New Corn Pest Has Arisen to Worry the Kansas Farmer.

Reports recently received at Wichita, Kan. from the Walnut valley say that a new kind of bug known as the elephant bug has been infesting the cornfields in that section, says a Wichita correspondent of the Kansas City Star. H. B. Lamb, a farmer, had planted his corn a second time only to have it taken by the bugs, and he finally plowed up an eighty-acre field and planted kafir corn. The bug is two times the size of the potato bug and has a long proboscis which projects from its head like an elephant's trunk. With this implement it sucks the juice from the central stalk of corn. When the corn is more than a foot high the bug does it no harm.

New Lamp For Miners.

Miners in the Shenandoah region are elated over a new mine lamp, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. This is a new light for the use of miners and one intended to completely do away with the oil and wick smoke producing arrangement that has been in use for years. This new lamp gives a powerful light without producing any smoke. It is a gas flame, produced by lighting the gas generated by combining calcium carbide and water, or in other words, it is a new application of the old principle of acetylene gas.

WHITE MUST DIE IS THE VERDICT OF PARDON BOARD

NEGRO MURDERER OF AN OFFICER
TO BE ELECTROCUTED
ON JULY 19.

Girl's Charges of Cruelty Denied—
Cloudburst Near Xenia—Ohio
News in Paragraphs.

Columbus, O., July 12.—The state board of pardons refused to recommend a commutation of the death sentence of Henry White, the Warren county negro who is to be electrocuted next Friday for the murder of George Besore, marshal of the village of Franklin. There is no probability that Governor Harris will interfere with the execution of the sentence, as he began to put into practice his new policy of sitting with the pardon board in first degree homicide cases in order to put an end to the custom of attorneys for condemned men repeating their arguments to him after failing to convince the board. Another inmate of the annex, Roy Fowler of Dayton, was more fortunate. In order to permit the pardon board to review his death sentence, the governor granted him a reprieve from Aug. 29 to Oct. 18. The board recommended the following pardons and commutations: R. O. Woods, 1904, Allen county, embezzlement, five years, pardon; Wesley Mock and Shaw Mock, 1907, Putnam county, burglary, five years each, commutation to three; Samuel Hunter, 1901, Athens county, murder in second degree, life, commutation to 12 years; John Clayroot, 1895, Franklin county, habitual criminal, life, commutation to 12 years. Pleas by the following were rejected: Frank Bell, Henry Davis, Charles Justice, Henry Shepherd, Louis Goines, Albert Bartz, Elmer Parham, Henry Price, Charles Green, Grant Hockett, William Hill, Harrison Baum.

Girl Alleges Cruel Treatment.

Youngstown, O., July 12.—Rose Siegle, 18, a cripple, just returned from the Columbus Institute for Feeble-Minded, where she has been since last winter, told the probate judge a tale of cruelty, alleging that she was given the water cure, beaten, dragged by her hair and thrown down stairs by the matron and attendants. Her right side is paralyzed, and she says she was abused without any cause.

Columbus, O., July 12.—At the State Institute for Feeble-Minded Youth a general denial was made of all the charges contained in the Siegle girl's story. It is declared that none of the inmates have ever been subjected to the water cure or the starving-out process, and that the Siegle girl was probably actuated by her desire to remain at home in telling her story.

SPIRITED THROUGH ALLEY, FEAR MOB

Demonstration Made When Iron
Worker Was Arrested on Complaint of Little Girl.

Columbus, July 12.—Fearing that mob violence might be attempted, the police last night spirited Cornelius Murray of 487 West Rich street, through an alley and hurried him to police headquarters, following the accusation that he had attempted to assault 13 year old Alice Holmes, daughter of William Holmes, Sullivan and Dakota avenues.

Residents in the vicinity of Rich street and Avondale avenue were frenzied last night by the report that the Holmes girl had been assaulted. A crowd gathered quickly and the police were anxious as to the safety of their prisoner.

The girl claims Murray stopped her, and she broke from him and ran home. G. H. Day of 294 Avondale avenue, claims to have seen the child break from a man whom he did not recognize in the darkness. He says he followed him to his home and then telephoned the police. Patrolmen Robinson and Ward went to the scene and Ward decided the description fitted Murray, a structural iron worker. They found him in bed. He claimed to have been in bed at the time the trouble occurred.

The father of the girl refused to file any charge giving as a reason the fact that Murray has a wife and four children and bears a good reputation. Murray was released.

"As I kiss this cross I am innocent of any attempt to injure the child," declared Murray to the police, as he bent his gray head to the symbol. He said the cross had been placed about his neck by his dying mother and he had worn it ever since.

Suits Against Incarns.

Sapulpa, I. T., July 12.—United States District Attorney Mellett filed suits against 50 Cherokee Indians to annul deeds to property of enormous value which had been issued to defendants. The government alleges that the names of the defendants were placed on the Indian rolls through fraudulent testimony, and that their names were stricken from the rolls after the deeds to the property had been issued to them. A large portion of the famous Glenn Pool, in the oil district, is involved in the suits.

SLAY ROBBED OF $835.

Columbus, July 12.—Three unknown men are suspected of the theft of $835 in cash which was taken from a hiding place in a bed at the home of Nicola Parach, a Slav living at 2070 South High street, late on Thursday evening. Parach, a foreign resident of the South Columbus district, gave but a slight clue to help toward the identification of the men, and the police are now working up the case from slight information.

The three men suspected were seen in several places together last night. Once they were in a saloon at corner of Schiller and Bruck streets, and another time at the corner of East First avenue and North Fourth street.

FATHER IS ANGRY DISOWNS HIS SON

But the Wealthy Italian's Son, Who Married a School Teacher, Does Not Mind It Much.

Hamilton, O., July 12.—Gus Datilo, the wealthy young Italian of this city, who was to have married Miss Concetta Pereno at St. Joseph's church, Dayton, O., her home, but failed of appearance, although guests were waiting at the flower-banked altar, is now the husband of Miss Lella Anderson, a pretty young school teacher of this city.

Instead of going to Dayton to wed Miss Pereno, Datilo, with Miss Anderson, accompanied by her mother, hurried to Batavia, Ohio, where a marriage license was procured. Immediately after the marriage license had been issued to them they drove to Stone-lick to be married by a Catholic priest, but the latter refused to officiate because the groom lived in another parish. The lovers then journeyed to Williamsburg, where they were married by a Methodist minister.

As the result of his jilting Miss Pereno, and marrying Miss Anderson, Datilo has been disowned by his father, a wealthy fruit dealer of this city, relatives say. None of the Datilo family would discuss the wedding.

But Datilo and his pretty bride say they don't care whether or not he has been disowned. They say they love each other and that's enough.

According to Datilo and his bride, he never was engaged to marry Miss Pereno. They assert that the match was one arranged by the heads of the Datilo and Pereno families without regard as to whether or not the young folks approved each other.

Datilo admits that on the day preceding the planned wedding with Miss Pereno he procured a marriage license at Dayton, but declares he did so at the request of the parents. Immediately thereafter he handed the document over to Miss Pereno's father, he says, and departed, that on the morrow he might wed the woman he loved.

He declares that his course was fully justified.

THINKS DATILO ILL.

Dayton, O., July 12.—Miss Concetta Pereno, the beautiful young daughter of Joseph Pereno, of this city, who was to have been married to Gus Datilo of Hamilton, at St. Joseph's church, in this city, but was rejected for another, refused to discuss the affair. She is content to believe that Datilo is ill and ultimately will wed her.

It developed here that Datilo's father, when he found that the young man had failed to appear at the altar, sent a detective to Covington, Ky., to locate him, believing that he and Miss Lella Anderson, his bride, had gone to that city.
